

AFTERNOON TEA FUN FACTS

Brought to you by SOUTH BANK LONDON .com

WOAH

GO ON guess how many cuppas us Brits drink in a year...

☪ 1 MILLION? ☪ 10 MILLION? ☪ 10 BILLION?

62 BILLION CUPS CHAPS

THE MOST EXPENSIVE TEA
BAG IN THE WORLD

(of sorts) was created by Boodles jewellers to celebrate PG-Tips 75th birthday! The diamond-encrusted sack was worth £7000 and auctioned off for charity.

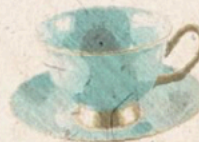

DID YOU KNOW...

in the Library Lounge at London Marriott Hotel County Hall, you'll be surrounded by 4994 antique books whilst devouring your afternoon tea.

OXO TOWER RESTAURANT, BAR AND BRASSERIE SERVE 10,400 COCKTAIL FUELLED NOT AFTERNOON TEAS EVERY YEAR

FOR THOSE THAT DON'T HAVE A SWEET TOOTH, PARK PLAZA WESTMINSTER BRIDGE SERVE UP A sushi AFTERNOON TEA

On board City Cruises, customers munch through a whopping 33,600 scones per year.

IT WAS PROBABLY A GOOD THING TEA ARRIVED IN THE UK, BECAUSE...

UNTIL THE 1700'S

GIN

WAS THE NATION'S FAVOURITE TIPPLE!

THE WORLD'S BIGGEST SCONE WAS 119.45 kg and measured 117 cm in diameter. The great cake was baked by Shaun McCarthy in New Zealand and took a mighty 7 hours to cook...

